

KEYNOTE ADDRESS BY

Director of the Dying to Meet You Project

Amanda Achtman

Amanda Achtman is a Canadian writer, speaker, and ethics educator who works at the intersection of culture, health care, and human dignity. She serves as the Director of Ethics for Physicians for Life and is the founder of Dying to Meet You, a project focused on improving how Canadians talk about death and dying. With experience in journalism, public policy, and bioethics, and advanced studies in philosophy and theology, Amanda is known for bringing clarity, compassion, and hope to complex and sensitive public conversations.

PRESENTATIONS – LOCAL GROUPS/PROJECTS INCLUDING

Gabriel Network

Pro-Life Apologetics

Rachel's Vineyard

Thunder Bay Against Abortion and more....

MOVIE

“Life Worth Living” (Latest EPC Movie)